

2022 COPIC Humanitarian Award: Dr. Tim Irwin

We are proud to announce that Dr. Tim Irwin a Cardiologist from Yankton, was chosen as the recipient of the 2022 South Dakota COPIC Humanitarian Award. Dr. Irwin is recognized for his commitment to making a difference in health care. The award was presented to Dr. Irwin at the Annual South Dakota State Medical Association Meeting on June 3rd.

Dr. Irwin is a respected cardiologist at Yankton Medical Clinic in Yankton, SD. Even with his busy schedule and young family, Dr. Irwin dedicates much of his time volunteering at Servant Hearts Clinic, a free health care clinic in Yankton dedicated to providing health and hope to patients with limited access to health care due to income, language, legal status, and other variables. Dr. Irwin has played many roles at the clinic over the years including volunteer physician, medical student supervisor, physician recruiter, and IT team leader.

He is dedicated to the mission of Servant Hearts Clinic and ensuring it continues to thrive. Dr. Irwin continually works to increase quality care for all patients with innovative ideas, including engaging the help of future physicians. He embodies the epitome of the mission serving the physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being of all who seek care.

COPIC is thrilled to honor Dr. Irwin as the 2022 COPIC South Dakota Humanitarian Award winner, and on his behalf, donate $10,000 to Servant Hearts Clinic in honor of this recognition.

To learn more about the COPIC Humanitarian Award or to nominate a physician, visit our website:

www.callcopic.com/about-copic/copic-humanitarian-award or email Laura Wadleigh at lwadleigh@copic.com.